

Miss Emily Hartger.
Homoeopathic Hospital
Pittsburgh Pa.

CM

Rucks O.
Aug 18, 1892

Dear sister.

I am sitting up in
my bed room writing
this at Uncle Frank's.
I came here yesterday
<sup>16</sup> the train arrived at Kingston at 11:30 and I found Uncle F.
waiting for me. Oh
how glad I was to see him I was afraid
he wouldn't be there.
Uncles are all well.
I felt pretty tired
but I am getting rested I feel quite well now I am enjoying my self very

CM

much I get all the pears and apples I want to eat. I have got a new jacket one
of these light colored ones I like it real well I wish you could see it.

Thursday Morning.
Capt Maggel is sitting
out a shirt now for Hermie.

I have been sitting
out in the hammock
and eating apples.
Uncle Frank is digging
potatoes.

Harvie <sup>and</sup> Hermie is
at school.

I was homesick yesterday.

We are going to have roasting ears for dinner and lots of good things

later we will take a ride this afternoon or evening.

Saturday Morning
Last evening Aunt Maggie and Harvie and I went to one of the neighbors and we ate all the peaches we could and stayed till nearly ten o'clock. We had a real nice time. Well I will have to close so that the boys can mail this on their way to school.

~~I haven't said~~
that Lewis H. gone home yet.

CM

how are you poor
dear girl.
Well I guess I will close with love and
kisses from your
dear Sister Jennie

Kisses. . . . .
. . . . .

(P.S.) Write soon
Edie for I get lonesome for the boys is going to school.
Good By.

